On December 5, 2002, a group of Aerolite Extrusion Company employees successfully completed the course, INTERNAL AUDITING: Mini-Audits® for Maximum Results. Tom Fazekas, from KAVON International, Inc., conducted the course.

During the course, the students were introduced to the concept of internal auditing, its importance to Aerolite Extrusion Company in maintaining their ISO 9002:1994 registration, and their role as auditors to monitor compliance. They also participated in a number of exercises that reinforced the concepts being taught.

The Aerolite Extrusion Company was founded in 1953 on the basis of providing the highest quality product available while offering the best possible service. They are still privately owned after more than 45 years, and continue to maintain those same standards of excellence. As a full-service custom extruder, they are ready to handle customer requirements from print to finished part.

They employ the latest industry technology--from contemporary die design, automatic double pullers and PLC press controls, to fully computerized production control system.

Aerolite Extrusion Company is registered to the ISO 9002:1994 quality standard.
