ROHRER CORPORATION

717 Seville Road
Wadsworth, Ohio 44282

The new internal auditors at Rohrer Corporation.

On June 11, 2003, a group of Rohrer Corporation employees successfully completed a course, INTERNAL AUDITING: Mini-Audits® for Maximum Results conducted by John Novak & Jess Carroll, both from KAVON International, Inc.

Rohrer Corporation, a specialty converter of skin and blister packaging board, folding cartons and thermoformed blisters, was founded in 1973. Rohrer is the country's leading supplier of visual carded packaging.

Rohrer's success is attributed to our sound financial base, experienced employees, aggressive service, quality orientation, and dependable delivery. Materials are purchased specifically to meet the unique demands of heat seal cards. Rohrer packaging experts are qualified to recommend the proper structural materials, to suggest economical layouts, and to assist with fresh graphic designs.

Rohrer Corporation is registered to the ISO 9002:1994 quality standard and is transitioning to ISO 9001:2000.
